

CANDIDATE INFORMATION BULLETIN

INTRODUCTION

The Tennessee Department of Commerce & Insurance, later referred to as the State, is responsible for licensing and regulating of Explosive Blasters, Limited Blasters, Portable Fire Extinguisher Specialists, Fixed Fire Extinguisher Specialists and Liquefied Petroleum Gas Dealers (LPG) Classes I, II, III, IV. The State has contracted with Professional Credential Services, Inc. (PCS) to provide testing administration and score reporting for these professions.

APPLICATION AND EXAMINATION PROCESS

Step 1 – Obtain a licensure application from the State.

Step 2 – Submit licensure application and application fee to the State. The State evaluates applications and determines an applicant's eligibility. The State notifies applicants if they are ineligible. Eligible applicants will receive a scheduling form along with their approval notice from PCS.

Step 3 -- Eligible applicants submit the scheduling form and examination fee to PCS.

Step 4 – Eligible applicants are scheduled for the next available examination by PCS. PCS will mail eligible applicants an admission packet, approximately 7 days prior to the examination. Admission packets contain an admission card, testing instructions and a site map.

Step 5 – Examine at the assigned site location.

Step 6 – PCS mails scores to examinees and the State within 10 business days of the examination.

Step 7 – The State will continue processing the licensing application of passing examinees.
